Fifth Global Conference on Human Trafficking

SAFE 2027

MAPPING THE INVISIBLE: Trauma • Technology Innovations • Triumph Over Trafficking

SPONSORSHIP & PARTNERSHIP OPPORTUNITY

Prepared by: Mrs. Mridula Sharma Singh

THE GLOBAL CHALLENGE

Human trafficking continues to evolve across borders and through new channels of exploitation. Today, trafficking intersects with technology, migration, organized crime, labour exploitation, sexual exploitation, and emerging forms of financial and cyber-enabled exploitation.

THE CHALLENGE

- Sexual Exploitation
- Forced Labour
- Cyber-Enabled Exploitation
- Labour Trafficking
- Finance-Linked Trafficking
- Adoption Trafficking

THE OPPORTUNITY

The changing nature of trafficking demands stronger collaboration between government, law enforcement, healthcare, technology, academia, NGOs, survivor leaders, and the private sector.

SAFECHR 2027 brings these perspectives together to move from awareness to actionable solutions.

WHY NOW?
WHY SAFE 2027

SAFECHR 2027 is designed to bring together the people, institutions and ideas needed to respond to the changing nature of human trafficking.

TRAFFICKING IS EVOLVING

Technology, migration and organized crime are creating new pathways for exploitation.

KNOWLEDGE

SAFECHR 2027 creates a platform for research, training, policy dialogue, innovation and practical solutions.

COLLABORATION

Effective prevention and response require governments, law enforcement, healthcare, technology, academia, NGOs and survivor advocates to work together.

STRATEGIC PLATFORM

New Delhi will host leaders and experts from around the world for three days of knowledge exchange, collaboration and action.
